

ney to Honolulu. They are from Scotland, and are relatives of Mrs. Muir.

Miss J. J. P. of Salt Lake, who has been teaching at the intermediate grade of the beautiful schools, was surprised by her pupils on Thursday evening at her home. A pleasant evening was spent.

Fred Smith of Farmington was honored yesterday by the receipt of a "Box F" letter, calling him to go on a mission.

PARK CITY SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Park City, April 28.—A pretty wedding occurred at the Catholic church Tuesday afternoon, at which Rev. Father Galligan united in marriage Miss Lillian O'Hagan and Felix Traynor. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Morn and Miss Mary Hannon, and the groom by James McAlonan and David O'Hagan. The church was filled with the friends of the young couple, who came to extend their best wishes. A reception was held at the residence of the bride in the evening.

One of the loveliest gatherings ever assembled in Park City was that which gathered at Castle hall Tuesday evening at the invitation of Park lodge No. 4, K. of P. An interesting programme was read and consisted of brief talks on the principles of the order, interspersed with musical selections, after which all formality was thrown aside and all indulged in a genuine "stag banquet." Story telling, with music at intervals, kept the large crowd present in a continuous uproar until midnight.

The anniversary of the founding of the order was celebrated in grand style by the members of the Park lodges of the I. O. O. F. At their invitation a number of guests from the Coalville lodge was present, and all joined in making the day one long to be remembered. After the regular I. O. O. F. anniversary exercises the gentlemen were banqueted by silver leaf lodge No. 3, P. of H., and all repaired to the Duncree theatre, where a grand ball was in progress, and tripped the light fantastic until morning.

The Emerson club spent a profitable afternoon Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. F. R. Davis. The club is making a study of "Henry VI."

Park City's sole representative at the banquet of the Pan-Hellenic society was George H. Alexander.

Arthur Kenyon spent Sunday in the Park, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath.

Mrs. W. V. Rice was a visitor to Park City this week. Mrs. Rice will shortly return to take up her residence in the Park for the summer.

Miss Mamie Hurley of Welsh, Driscoll & Back's, is visiting with friends in the metropolis.

The "Hiker," a membership club in Mistletoe lodge, entertained the members of the Degree of Honor with a delightful literary programme after their meeting Thursday night. A game of "poetry" furnished an amusing diversion to the evening's entertainment.

RICHFIELD SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Richfield, April 28.—It is proposed to celebrate the first of May in this city as Dewey day. A dance, with perhaps a short programme, will be held in the Star pavilion, and the Y. L. M. L. A. will give a bouquet party in the opera house.

A benefit dance was given last evening for Jacob M. Lauritzen, who starts next week on a missionary trip to the Scandinavian country. A good crowd was present in spite of the stormy weather.

Hiram Wells has returned to Richfield after an absence of over a year at De Lamar, Nev.

Benny Carter has accepted a professorial position in Salt Lake, and is now at work there.

H. P. Hansen and Hannah Christensen were married yesterday, and a reception was tendered last evening at the home of the bride's mother. There was a large crowd of invited guests present.

Judge McCarthy has returned after a couple of weeks of occupancy of Judge Dusenberry's bench at Provo.

Court Reporter Rolfe has returned from his trip accompanying Judge Dusenberry to Kanab.

Mrs. Grant, wife of Apostle Grant, was a visitor to Richfield Sunday, and spoke at the Y. L. M. L. A. annual conference.

EVANSTON SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Evanston, Wyo., April 28.—Mrs. M. T. Dickinson returned from Salt Lake City Saturday evening.

Mrs. P. S. Hamaker is again at the Pacific hotel after a two months' visit in Salt Lake.

We are pained to record the serious illness of Charles, the little son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Roth, which will necessitate their removal from our city for some time. The little fellow is now in Ogden under the care of Dr. Perkins and hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery.

The "Chrononautretron" given by the ladies of the Episcopal church in the Opera house Monday evening was a financial success. The programme was interesting and the dance afterward was heartily enjoyed by a large number.

Wednesday evening the Odd Fellows celebrated their eightieth anniversary by a banquet and dance in their hall. There was a large attendance and fine music. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting, red, white and blue lights, etc., and altogether it was one of the sweetest balls of the season.

Thursday evening the Ladies Aid society gave a "bluejay" social at the residence of M. W. Foote and a large crowd was out in spite of the cold and snow. Ice cream and cake were served and $18 cleared for the good of the cause. A short programme consisting of songs, recitations, mandolin club, etc., was enjoyed.

The Magazine club met with Mrs. Evers Friday afternoon and the following programme was listened to with interest. After roll call and quotations from magazine poems, Mrs. Stone reviewed the Atlantic Monthly very thoroughly and Mrs. Winslow followed with a paper on "The Flowers We Find At Our Feet." Mrs. Anderson had "Current Events" and after the business was disposed of elegant refreshments were served and all departed voting the hostess a royal entertainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rhyth, Miss Berta and Master Willie returned Friday morning from a three months' trip in California.

Dr. Keith is at a loss to account for the spot of whitewash discovered on his coat the other morning, but those who ought to know attribute it to the "inauguration."
